7. OTHER BUSINESS

7.1 Working Group Updates

7.1.1 Advocacy Working Group

The advocacy working group provided an update on their work to date including the need for an intersectional gender lens. The "Living in Niagara" report was noted as a useful resource.

7.1.2 Leadership Working Group

The leadership working group provided an update on the work they have undertaken with respect to promotion of leadership.

7.1.3 Research and Resources Working Group

The research and resources working group provided an update with respect to work they have been undertaking in regards to involvement in public policy, gender based assessment processes and templates.

7.2 Update on Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Work

Cassie Oggunniyi, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Program Manager, provided an update with respect to the creation of a Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee. She noted that an internal committee had already been created with cross-departmental staff and interest groups. She advised that consultation is being undertaken with the local area municipalities to coordinate on diversity, equity and inclusion work.

Committee was also made aware that a recent Niagara Region staff survey included questions regarding racial/ethnic identity, disability, religious/spiritual affiliation, sexual orientation and gender and gender identity. She also advised that Regional Council would be participating in session two of diversity, equity and inclusion training on December 10.

It was noted that diversity, equity and inclusion is a corporate priority and that Council approved incorporating health equity impact assessments for all projects that the Region undertakes.

7.3 Next Steps

Committee Chair Huson noted that in coordination with the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Program Manager, the data put together by the working groups would be reconciled in order to build out key themes.

Members discussed Gender Based Analysis Plus (GBA+) Training. This training is offered by the Government of Canada and is an analytical process used to assess how diverse groups of women, men, and gender diverse people may experience policies, programs and initiatives. The training is free and more information can be found at the following link:
